

A report on the European E12 Study Visit to Poland

A list of the current participants in the Study Visit which took place on 25 April 2013 at the European E12 competition “Za Żelazną Bramą”

A list of the current organisers on behalf of the Warsaw Architecture and City Planning Department.

1. Tomasz Zemła; architect - Warsaw
2. Joanna Szczepańska; architect/psychologist - Warsaw
3. Hubert Wójcicki; architect - Warsaw

1. The Study Visit kicked off at 10:00 a.m. on 25 April 2013 with a gathering at Defilad Square next to the Palace of Culture and Science in Warsaw.

2. The participants were informed about the detailed schedule of the Study Visit planned by the Organisers – the division of the meeting into stages:

2.1.<Stage one> of the meeting with participants during the Study Visit involved a coach trip along the streets of the <STUDY SITE>. During the trip, the Organisers presented the most important information regarding the vital buildings in the <STUDY SITE>, the structure of development at the <STUDY SITE>, and the history connected with the <STUDY SITE>.

2.2. Conducting the first discussion on issues connected with the European E12 competition.

3.0. The bus trip ended in the <PROJECT SITE> - the Za Żelazną Bramą real estate – <stage two of the Study Visit>.

The participants continued the journey on foot along the streets of the <PROJECT SITE>.

In this part of the Study Visit, the Participants could become acquainted with the most important section of the PROJECT SITE development task, its history, and its architectural and urban specification. Each Participant was given a unique opportunity to get to know the problems that will have to be solved during the implementation of the project for the competition.

4. After a four-hour-long trip the organisers moved the discussion to the conference hall in the Royal Castle in Warsaw <stage three of the Study Visit> where, once again, with a multimedia presentation, the participants were provided with data on the site and its characteristic aspects.

5. At the end of the visit the Organisers answered questions from the participants about the aspects they had encountered during the Study Visit.

6. The Study Visit ended at about 3:30 p.m.
